

PLAN FOR ACTION IN THE A. R. A. CASE

ATTORNEYS ARE IN CONFERENCE THIS AFTERNOON.

What the Next Move Will Be Is Not Yet Known—Judge Woods' Decision Reviews the Whole Case and Says That It Is One Of Great Importance.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—The attorneys for Debs, Kelliher and Howard met at 5 o'clock this afternoon to decide what steps to take in the matter of the conviction of their clients. The case was begun by the receivers of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, but the sentences are not to be cumulative and therefore the men will be required to serve but one of them. On request of Attorney Darrow the court ruled that the sentences should go into effect ten days from yesterday, in order to give the defendants time to consider further action.

The defendants in the contempt case were Eugene V. Debs, president; Geo. W. Howard, vice-president; Sylvester Kelliher, secretary, and L. W. Rogers, James Hogan, William E. Burns, R. M. Goodwin, J. F. McVean and Martin J. Elliott, directors, of the American Railway Union. All of those were present yesterday except Mr. Goodwin. This is the case in which Judge Woods and Grosscup issued an injunction restraining President Eugene V. Debs and the other officers of the American Railway Union from interfering with the movement of trains on the various railroads centering in Chicago and on the alleged violation of this injunction the defendants were arrested on the charge of contempt.

The opinion began with a resume of the facts submitted in the case, the narration of which occupied nearly half of the numerous typewritten pages, from which the judge read. The application of law or the popular part of the finding followed and was expressed at length. Judge Woods said in part:

"If the case presented were itself of less moment the very great importance of some of the questions involved could not be overlooked. While the principles considered are not new, in the question of the validity of the injunction which the defendants are charged with violating, there are involved inquiries which in some respects go beyond the lines of established or unquestioned precedent. A preliminary question in the case was whether or not upon the filing of the answers the defendants were entitled to be discharged without an inquiry into the facts. The authorities seem to be agreed and accordingly the court ruled, District Judge Grosscup participating in the decision, that in a proceeding for contempt in equity sworn answer, however full and unequivocal, is not conclusive. The objection raised by demurrer that the injunction was illegal and void was overruled at the time of presentation, but with leave for further argument at the final hearing upon the evidence. A great body of evidence, consisting of the testimony of witnesses, telegrams and other documents, adduced to show the guilt of the accused. Without going into the details of averment, the charge made against the defendants was that they were engaged in a conspiracy to hinder and interrupt interstate commerce and the carriage of the mails upon the railroads centering in Chicago by means and in a manner to constitute, within the recognized definitions, a public nuisance. A nuisance is anything that unlawfully works hurt, inconvenience or damage." (Blackstone's Commentaries, 216.) A public nuisance is "such an inconvenience or troublesome offense as annoys the whole community in general and not merely some particular persons." (4 Blackstone's Commentaries, 166.) The Supreme court of the United States has spoken on the subject. In the case of the mayor of Georgetown vs. the Alexandre Canal company; 12 Peters, 91-98, where an injunction was sought against obstructing the navigation of the Potomac river, the court said: "Besides this remedy at law it is now settled that a court of equity may take jurisdiction in cases of public nuisance by an information filed by the attorney-general. While therefore it is admitted by all that it is confessedly one of delicacy and accordingly the instances where it is exercised are rare, yet it may be exercised in those cases in which there is imminent danger of irreparable mischief before the tardiness of the law can reach it.

"But while this jurisdiction of the English high court of chancery and of the equity courts of the several states of the union is not understood to be disputed by counsel for the defendants, they do insist that, in the absence of legislation by congress conferring the authority, the federal courts can do nothing for the protection of the highways of interstate commerce, whether upon land or water.

"In reply to this position of the defense reference is made to the act to regulate commerce, as amended by the act of March 2, 1889—25 U. S. Stat., p. 855—and it is contended that by force of the provisions of that statute, passed in exercise of the power conferred on congress by the constitution 'to regulate commerce among the several states,' the national control has been extended over the channels and agencies of interstate commerce, including railways as well as navigable waters, and that out of this legislation, whatever had been the rule before, has arisen by necessary implication the jurisdiction of federal courts in accordance with the principles of equity, to protect that commerce against interference or obstruction. The right of the federal government to obtain the injunction is also asserted upon the ground of property right in the mails. That the nation owns the mail bags is of course beyond dispute and that it pays large sums annually for the carrying of the mails upon the railroads is well understood. In Seagriff vs. Stokes, 3 How, 151, where the question was whether vehicles carrying the mails were 'laden with the property of the United States' and, therefore, exempt from toll on the Cumberland road in Pennsylvania, the Supreme court said:

"The United States have unquestionably a property in the mails. They are not mere common carriers but a government, performing a high official duty in holding and guarding its own property, as well as that of its citizens committed to its care; for a very large portion of the letters and packages conveyed on this road, especially during the session or congress, consists of communications to or from the officers of the executive department or members of the legislature on public service or in relation to matters of public concern."

"The railroad companies are clothed with the power of eminent domain to enable them to acquire lands necessary for their purpose because the proposed use is for the public benefit. To the extent of the share which the companies have in interstate commerce they hold their lands and rights of way for the benefit of the general public and subject to the national control. 'For this purpose,' to use the expression of the Supreme court in Gilman vs. Philadelphia, 3 Wall, 713, in respect to navigable waters, 'they are the public property of the nation and subject to all the requisite legislation of congress.'"

The decision goes on to say that by sending out telegrams and otherwise, the defendants violated the injunction.

HOT LABOR FIGHT AT DENVER
Socialists and Conservatives Cross Swords in Vigorous Style.

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 15.—The socialists are making a hot fight for the control of the American Federation of Labor. At the opening of the convention yesterday President Gompers announced that it would be necessary to cancel John Burns' engagements at Cincinnati and Detroit, as he must have an occasional day of rest.

A letter from Gov. Waite was read. It touched on the action of ex-President Harrison and President Cleveland in calling out the federal troops for the settling of labor and other troubles and urging workingmen to unite in political action.

At 10 o'clock the "political program," which was submitted by the last convention to the various unions to be acted upon by them and then by the federation was taken up. It will if adopted bind the federation to independent political action. The planks are as follows:

"First, compulsory education; second, direct legislation; third, a legal eight-hour working day; fourth, sanitary inspection of; workshops, mines and homes; fifth, liability of employer for injury to health, body or life; sixth, the abolition of contract system in all public work; seventh, the abolition of the sweating system; eighth, the municipal ownership of street cars and gas and electric plants for public distribution of light, heat, and power; ninth, the nationalization of telegraphs, telephones, railroads and mines; tenth, the ownership by the people of all means of production and distribution; eleventh, the principle of referendum in all legislation."

John F. Tobin of the boot and shoe workers asserted that there was a political organization among laboring men and that presidents and secretaries and other officers of the labor organizations use their positions to secure political election and appointments.

Objection came from a dozen men, and President Gompers took the floor and denounced as a lie the charge made by Mr. Tobin. He was mad clear through and his words were very bitter.

P. J. McGuire denounced the attempt to force the federation into a political party. He said the 1,200 labor leaders of Great Britain who are holding municipal offices are greatly outnumbered by their American brethren in similar positions.

At 12 o'clock a vote was taken on plank 1 without debate, and it was adopted.

The convention decided to consolidate planks 2 and 11, making the plank read, "Direct legislation through the referendum," and it was adopted.

In the afternoon a committee of three was appointed to draft resolutions in regard to the decision of Judge Woods and the imprisonment of Debs and others.

Plank 3 was taken up, and Mr. Weisman of the Bakers' union moved to amend it to read: "An eight hour day for all government employees, national, state and municipal." Delegate Lloyd of Boston offered an amendment to read "A legal working day of not more than eight hours," which was adopted.

Plank 4 was taken up and an amendment was offered eliminating the words "and home." After a lengthy discussion the plank as originally drawn was adopted.

Plank 5 was adopted without discussion, as were also planks 6 and 7.

Plank 8 was amended to include water works and was adopted.

Plank 9 was adopted without discussion, though several delegates asked to be recorded as voting in the negative.

When the famous plank 10 came up a few minutes before 1 o'clock the tug of war was reached. After an exceedingly warm debate Thomas J. Morgan presented a chart to show the relative numbers and wealth of workingmen, business men, capitalists and millionaires. His speech was a vigorous advocacy of socialism. Mr. Strasser followed Mr. Morgan in opposition to socialism. He said socialism was not progressing. The socialistic growth in Germany was not socialism, he said, but the rise of democracy.

Mr. Bramwood of the Typographical union said so far as he was informed the delegates were all under instruction from their unions as to their votes, and he thought all arguments were useless.

Others spoke at length, and the convention adjourned with the question still under consideration.

Denver Times Burned Out.

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 15.—Fire in the building occupied by the Times last evening caused damage estimated at $50,000. Flames were discovered in the room used for the linotypes and as a composing room. The building was flooded with water and the damage from this source is more serious than from the fire itself. President Coe of the Times Publishing company gives the loss as follows: Loss in composing room, $40,000; press room, $5,000; editorial rooms, $1,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is fully covered by insurance as is that to the building, amounting to from $5,000 to $10,000.

CASH FOR PENSIONS CAUSED A DEBATE

REPRESENTATIVES WRANGLLED OVER IT SOME TIME.

The Bill for Appropriation for That Purpose Was Finally Passed Without Division—Banking and Currency Committee Still In Session—Change the Anarchist Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The house went into committee of the whole without preliminary business yesterday and resumed consideration of the pension appropriation bill. Mr. Grosvenor (rep., Ohio), Mr. Morse (rep., Mass.) and Mr. Lacey (rep., Iowa), criticized the pension office. Mr. Sickles (dem., N. Y.) said that with almost a million names on the roll, and $150,000,000 disbursed in pensions annually, the fraud discovered was utterly insignificant and should be a subject of self-congratulation to every soldier in the land.

A personal debate followed, in which many members took part and the discussion at times became very warm. The general debate afterward proceeded without marked incident, Messrs. Baker (N. H.), Enloe (Tenn.), Mahon (Pa.), Hulick (Ohio), Coombs (N. Y.), Bynum (Ind.), Cannon (Ill.) and Milliken (Maine) participating, and was concluded by a brief speech from Mr. O'Neil (Mass.), in charge of the bill. Speaking of the work of the special examiners sent into the field, Mr. O'Neil had read a letter from First Deputy Commissioner Murphy, in which the latter said that between 70 and 75 per cent of claims specially examined was allowed.

The bill was then taken up for amendment under the five minute rule. Mr. Lacey (rep., Iowa) moved to reduce the appropriations for examining surgeons from $800,000 to $500,000. Lost. The bill was then passed without division.

Mr. Outwaite reported the army appropriation bill. On motion of Mr. McCrory the Hitt resolution calling on the secretary of state for all correspondence and reports relating to the payment of $425,000 to Great Britain growing out of the controversy over the Alaskan fur seals was adopted.

A motion to adjourn until Monday was carried and then the house took a recess until 8 o'clock. The evening session was devoted to private pension bills.

RICH MEN ARE ANGRY

Financiers Become Wrathful with Springer's Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Chairman Springer's idea of reforming the currency is a very simple one, but it is not arousing enthusiasm among the bankers and financial experts who have been called on for their opinions. Many claim that they have not been treated by the committee with the respect to which their wealth and standing entitles them, and are bitter in their criticisms.

Representative Walker of Massachusetts said yesterday before the committee that he understood a program had been quietly agreed on by which the currency bill would be considered by the democrats of the committee last night, by the full committee to-night, and presented to the house Monday.

Chairman Springer said this program was mere surmise. Mr. Walker protested against this undue haste. There should be full consideration of the question without limit to time.

Mr. Walker's motion to reconsider was voted down by a strict party division. Ex-Representative A. J. Warner of Ohio, president of the Bimetallic league, addressed the committee, urging that an elastic currency, such as Secretary Carlisle sought, was an impossibility, as prices rose as fast as currency increased. Mr. Warner said the history of the world proved the gold standard could not be maintained by giving to the banks the form of expanding the circulation.

Enoch Platt, president of the Baltimore clearing house, said with regard to the Baltimore plan that it embodied his views.

John R. Walsh, president of the Chicago national bank, in a letter stated his objection to the Baltimore plan, saying it was nothing but a revival of the old New York state safety fund plan, a system which was abandoned long before the organization of any national banks. In his opinion the proper way to deal with the currency is for the government to issue an irredeemable 2½ per cent bond which could be made the basis of circulation for national banks up to the amount of the capital.

A. L. Ripley, vice-president of the National Hide and Leather bank of Boston, characterized the system of issuing demand notes redeemable in gold as thoroughly vicious. Under this system the banks have no means of adjusting their reserves to meet the demand of the times, thus compelling the holding of a reserve which at one time would be too large and at other times too small. He opposed state banks because of the need of uniformity. Referring to Secretary Carlisle's bill, Mr. Ripley said he thought the tenth and eleventh sections would open the gates to extensive counterfeiting unless changed.

C. C. Jackson of Jackson & Curtis, brokers, urged a provision in any bill that might be reported directing the secretary of the treasury to begin in January, 1895, to cancel $4,000,000 worth of United States notes each month until the entire outstanding amount should be disposed of and to sell bonds if necessary to accomplish this result. The committee adjourned with the announcement by the chairman that Messrs. St. John and Williams of New York would be heard today.

Decides to Report Carlisle's Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The democratic members of the banking and currency committee held an executive meeting immediately after the adjournment of the regular hearing and after an hour's discussion decided to report the Carlisle bill without amendment. It is understood that Representative Bland has given up all hope of getting his free coinage bill out of his committee and has determined to offer his bill as an amendment to the Carlisle bill in the house. If it is declared not to be germane, he will appeal from the decision, giving the house an opportunity to vote on the proposition.

Changes in the Anarchist Measure.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The judiciary committee of the house agreed yesterday on numerous amendments to the anarchist bill as passed by the senate. The main amendment gives the foreign inspection of immigrants to the United States consul, under the direction of the state department, instead of to treasury inspectors, as proposed by the senate bill. Another amendment requires every immigrant to have a certificate from the United States consul at the port from which the immigrant embarks.

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF.

Desperate Crime of Kazmerz Herner at Manistee, Mich.

MANISTEE, Mich., Dec. 15.—Kazmerz Herner murdered his wife and then ended his own life yesterday, it is supposed, during a fit of anger, the result of a quarrel. The murderer dressed himself in his best clothes, lighted candles on a table and opened his prayer book. He then seated himself before a mirror and sent a bullet into his brain. Herner was a German, 45 years old. This tragedy makes the fourth fatality in the family during the present year.

New York Police Officer Admits that He Paid $15,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Police Captain Creedon yesterday made a full statement before the Lexow committee of the purchase of a captaincy for him as a cost of $15,000. Creedon was paid to ex-Police Commissioner John J. Martin.

The Koetting Case.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 15.—The hearing in the case against Ex-Banker John B. Koetting came up before Judge Wallber yesterday. If the point made by Attorney Williams, of the unconstitutionality of the law, holds, the prosecution of Koetting, F. T. Day, William Plankington and all of the bankers who are charged with illegal banking under this law would fail. The case will go at once to the Supreme court for its decision.

Funeral of Sir John Thompson.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—At the request of Sir Charles Tupper, the Canadian high commissioner, William Reynolds Stephens and Joseph Whitehead yesterday each took a plaster cast of the face of Sir John Thompson for the purpose of making a bust of the dead premier of Canada. The remains of Sir John were then placed in a lead coffin and removed to the Roman Catholic church on Spanish place, where the most impressive religious ceremonies were observed.

Van Leuven Is Guilty.

The jury retired at 3:30 p. m. and in an hour brought in a verdict of guilty as charged in the second count of the indictment. It was not generally believed the jury would convict, owing to the fine line drawn as to the evidence.

Not Guilty of Lynching Negroes.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 15.—The jury in the case of W. S. Richardson and Ed Smith, charged with being implicated in the lynching of six negro prisoners Aug. 31, yesterday brought in a verdict of not guilty. The other men charged with the crime will not be brought to trial.

CONDITION OF TRADE IS GROWING BETTER

MANUFACTURERS' PAY ROLLS SHOW INCREASE.

Speculative Markets Are Advancing—Textile Manufacturers Weaker—Figures for the Week in the United States Show a Small Decrease—Details Given By Dunn.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—R. G. Dunn & Co.'s weekly Review of Trade says: Several thousand manufacturers have forwarded statements of their pay rolls for November, this year, in 1893, and in 1892, to make an encouraging comparison of earnings for that month, which shows an increase in total payments of 15.2 per cent over last year, but a decrease of 18.3 per cent in comparison with 1892. A statement of hands employed shows in the same establishments 10.2 per cent more persons were employed than a year ago, but 8.6 per cent less than in 1892. The average of earnings for over 250,000 hands is 4 per cent larger than in 1893, but 14½ per cent less than in 1892, and this statement takes no account of hours of work in the months compared, nor of the establishments not working at all this year. In some of the industries more hands are at work than in 1892, but in others the decrease is large.

Contradictory changes in business are in order at this season. Neither the larger orders in some branches nor the depression of prices in others, afford a safe indication of the general movement. But the working force does not lessen more than usual for the time of year, the demand for goods does not seem to diminish, though in most departments it is considerably below the capacity of works in operation and the volume of business transacted is a little larger in comparison with last year than in November.

The speculative markets have advanced a little, though reasons are hard to find. Wheat is unchanged in price, although western receipts are as large as they were last year and Atlantic exports are 831,205 bushels against 1,029,230 a year ago. Corn is a fraction weaker without any important change in movement, though the receipts continue remarkably large. The heavy receipts of cotton have broken down the price to 5.75 cents, in spite of a strong speculative interest looking for some recovery from the lowest point on record.

The textile manufactures are on the whole weaker, although sales of wool for the last week, in part for speculative purposes, have been larger than one year or two years ago and for two weeks of December, and have been 9,610,200 pounds against 7,857,200 last year and 10,628,800 in 1892. The orders for spring woolsens do not materially increase, but the current demand for immediate delivery continues unusually large.

Cotton goods are demoralized by some reduction, and by the announcement of a great auction sale of 27,000 pieces by Bliss, Fabyan & Co. and the irregularity in staples increases. Failures for the last week have been 349 in the United States, against 339 last year, and forty in Canada, against forty last year.

CHARLES LAUBE IS CONVICTED.

Broadhead Man's Blind Pig Has Been Unmasked, and He Is Fined.

William Smith has been at Darlington for some days, he being associated with Burr Sprague in the defense of Charles Laube, the Broadhead man charged with running a "blind pig" for the sale of liquor without a license. The prosecution was represented by A. S. Douglas, district attorney of Green county, assisted by R. J. Wilson. Laube was a saloonkeeper previous to the no-license vote in Broadhead, and since that time has operated a wheel or "blind pig" in which the deposit of a sum of money would bring any intoxicant desired. He was found guilty and fined $100 and costs.

CARSON CHOSE THE WRONG TOWN

Every Reason Should Have Directed the Young Man to Beloit.

The Janesville Gazette of Monday drowned Albert Carson in Rock river on Saturday. The Janesville Gazette of Tuesday resuscitates Albert Carson and makes of him a bold burglar instead of a wet, cold corpse. Whoever trusts in the Gazette's head lines gets left—Beloit Free Press.

Carson's mistake was in not choosing Beloit as his "jumping off place." Had he done this his deed would never have been known unless the Free Press awoke enough some day to copy an account from Janesville or Rockford exchanges. Even had his disappearance become known the boy would have been excused at once. Either suicide or burglary is considered justifiable in Beloit when it makes escape to some other town possible.

MANY C. & N. W. MEN ARE LAID OFF

Several Trainmen Who Run Out of Baraboo Are Getting a Rest.

Owing to slackness of business on the Chicago & Northwestern road several men running out of Baraboo were set back or suspended from pay roll. Engineers C. W. King, George Hoadly, J. B. Murphy, John Collins, Charles Jacquish, William Keim, C. G. Simmons and Henry Deurer were set back. The following firemen were suspended: E. Johnson, W. Clark, J. Beck, Johnson, L. Bonelinger, A. Altot, W. J. Duncan and Frank Norman. Conductors who were suspended from pay roll are Kaesman, Heir, Blodin, Apker, Olford and Lane.

NEWS OF THE STATE TOWNS.

The family of Henry Miller of Cedarburg is sorely afflicted. A six-months' old child died of diphtheria a week ago and now a seven-year old boy is dead. A few weeks previous two children had died, all of the same disease, making four in all. But one child survives out of a five children, and that too is down with the disease.

CHARLES PROCKNOW, aged forty-eight years, who resided two miles north of London committed suicide by placing the muzzle of a shot gun to his head and firing it with a crocheted stick, instantly killing himself.

PETER PETERSON, Nel's Peterson and Nick Brodel, boys not 15 years of age, were arrested at Racine charged with systematically robbing the Racine Gas company.

While Edward Norman was playing football at Merrillan he ran into a barbed wire fence and lacerated his face and neck in a frightful manner.

A TRAMP was given lodgings at the county jail at Fond du Lac a few nights ago who was afflicted with smallpox.

JOHN TRIEBER fell down a well at Baraboo and broke the bridge of his nose.

THE Mineral Point Zinc works are now running at full capacity.

ASK QUEER THINGS OF A POSTMASTER

A. O. WILSON EXPECTED TO DO DETECTIVE WORK.

The Letters Requesting Him to Look Up Fleeing Husbands and Recrants Wives, Subjects of Foreign Nations and Other Little Things Like That Are Coming Thick.

Postmaster A. O. Wilson can tell a story or two himself when he feels so disposed, and now that he has gotten out of the democratic editing business his stories carry more weight than they used to.

"Few people know what is going on in this town" was the remark he made yesterday "but the postmaster's private mail alone makes him fairly well posted. You would be astonished to learn of the number of mothers inquiring about their daughters and sons; of husbands inquiring about their wives, and wives inquiring about their husbands. They all use the mail. The people think the postmaster of a city is a general intelligence officer, and that he is acquainted with every one, and is informed as to what is going on and what every one is doing. Not long ago I received a letter from a little girl out in Iowa. She wrote me, inclosing stamps to the amount of twenty-five cents, and said: 'I want you to send my papa home, and send him quick.'"

"Letters without stamps inclosed find their way to the waste basket, but when stamps are sent we generally answer. This little girl was in great earnest, so I took pains to investigate. I went to a certain man who I knew was a brother-in-law of the little girl's father.

Skipped with Another Woman.

"I inquired about the man, and was told that he had married a woman and left Janesville, and that he was a worthless fellow. Now, what could I tell that little girl in answer? I simply sent her stamps back, and told her I did not know where her papa was."

"I experienced considerable trouble with a woman down east who claimed to be the mother of the unfortunate man who died of smallpox in the pest house last winter. She wanted to know about her son. I wrote her several letters, explaining matters, and she finally started to come here. Then I sent her word that he died of black smallpox, and had been buried, so she did not come."

"I also had a novel experience in corresponding with the German consul at Chicago about a man in this city who claimed to be a German subject. Finally I found that the man had run away with another man's wife, when I closed the correspondence by informing the German consul that this man was not a German; that he was either a Russian or a Pole."

The postoffice is used secretly by many people communicating with each other who would communicate in no other way. An observing man might catch on as they call for their letters.

DRESSMAKING AT SOUTH CLINTON

Likely To Be an Over Supply of Skilled Hands—Other News Notes.

SOUTH CLINTON, Dec. 15.—Although there is a dressmaker in early every family here, several of our young ladies are attending the new dressmaking school in Clinton. At this rate South Clinton is bound to be overstocked with dressmakers, and just what to propose as a remedy will be a conundrum. The old time one or two weddings each year will not meet the requirements, though it is good as far as it goes. Perhaps some of our sociological friends at the university can propose—might there not be an idea in that word, a remedy that will in a measure relieve the over-supply? Several of our tobacco growers have commenced stripping. The crop is in excellent shape and with the old time republican price would net the growers neat sums. Rev. Jensen last Sunday evening preached an excellent sermon on Gustavus Adolphus. Ed. Stewart, who is employed on the Northwestern as engineer, is visiting his cousin, Frank Stewart. K. B. Duxstad has been enjoying a visit from his sister Carrie of Chicago. Miss Mattie Stewart is now located at Beloit as clerk in Hamlin's jewelry store.

COOPER HAS DONE GOOD WORK

The First District Congressman Has Not Neglected Any Opportunity.

Mr. Cooper has taken a prominent part in the proceedings in the house during the debate on the bill to authorize railroad pooling. He proposed an amendment on the bill which would, if it had passed, given the interstate commerce committee the absolute control of all needed regulations, and give them authority to revoke all orders relating to pooling when in their judgment necessary. The substitute was defeated. His effort to have the bill recommitted to the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, with the amendment that the committee be instructed to report back an amendment making all pooling agreements illegal unless approved by the interstate commerce committee, was also defeated. Mr. Cooper has sought to best serve the interests of the people, but a democratic congress has deliberately given the railroads a great power they have been deprived of for years.

Henrietta's Masque Ball.

On the evening of Wednesday, January 3, the Henrietta club will give their annual masquerade ball. This event is regarded by all amusement lovers as the social event of the year. Every preparation has been made to outdo all previous efforts. A number of handsome and valuable prizes are offered for different subjects to be represented by the different people there. It has been ruled in the past for invitation affairs of this kind to close at 1 o'clock, but there will be an exception at this ball and it will be extended an hour longer, thus giving those who do not mask, three full hours to step to the music of the best orchestra in the city. Invitations are issued and this will be one of the swellest and most enjoyable events of the season.

Not Plumber's Weather.

This is not the kind of weather that puts a twinkle in the festive plumbers eye, but nevertheless, Green & Allen at No. 6 West Milwaukee street on the bridge, seem to be very busy. It does not take a great while for a persons work to become known, and as this firm has no peer in the art of plumbing they are much sought after by those who are fortunate enough to own property. "The Best" is their motto. In connection with their plumbing department, can also be found as fine a line of bath tubs, sinks, closets, etc., as one can find in Chicago, and they allow no one to beat them on prices.

The Climate of Thiber.

Anthropologically considered what an enormous strain there must be on the man, as an animal, when exposed to the wild changes of temperature which he experiences in twenty-four hours when living on the high Thibetan ranges. There is not a night in the year that water does not freeze, while at mid-day the heat is often 120 degrees.

NEW SUNDAY PAPER COMES TOMORROW

JANESVILLE TO HAVE A SOCIETY WEEKLY.

J. L. Mahoney Is the Proprietor and Social, Religious, Educational, Secret Society and General Fields Will Be Covered With Departments for Original Poetry, Etc.

A new paper will make its appearance in Janesville to-morrow.

The Sunday Mirror is the name, and J. L. Mahoney, the attorney, will be the proprietor. The paper, as the name indicates, will be a weekly, and will be devoted to happenings of interest in the social, church, secret society, educational and general fields, with departments for original poems and stories by Rock county authors, trotting, comment on current events, etc. It will be non-political, and will be the size of The Daily Gazette. George W. Baird, formerly of the Recorder force, is in charge of the subscription and advertising departments, and Walter S. Fifeild is doing the local work. While the first number will be of necessity gotten out under the difficulties that beset any new venture, it is said that it will be a very creditable one. Illustrations will be freely used, and a story by Captain King is one of the features expected.

Mr. Mahoney, who is a graduate of the printer's case, is not a new hand in the newspaper business, he having worked as a reporter on the Chicago Times some years ago and later in the west. At one time he was sent to the Sandwich Islands by the San Francisco Examiner on an important mission.

"I am not going to let the newspaper interfere with my law business nor the law business interfere with my newspaper" he said. "The first number will be issued under rather adverse circumstances, as our time has been limited but I shall make improvements with each number."

The Gazette wishes its new contemporary success.

BROWN, BROS & LINCOLN.

Nominated by the President
WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The President has sent the following nominations to the senate:
Judson C. Clements of Georgia to be an interstate commerce commissioner, reappointment; term will expire Dec. 31, 1894.
Jervis Spencer of Maryland to be consul of the United States at Curacao, West Indies.

Breakers Ahead!
Prudence, foresight, that might have saved many a good ship that has gone to pieces among the breakers, is a quality "conspicuous by its absence" among many classes of invalids, and among none more notably than persons troubled with inactivity of the kidneys and bladder. When these organs fall off in duty grievous trouble is to be apprehended. Bright's disease, diabetes, catarrh and stone in the bladder, are among the diseases which a disregard of early symptoms confirm and render fatal. That signally effective diuretic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will—and let no one so troubled forget this—remedy the symptoms of approaching renal disease and check its further progress. Equally efficacious is the Bitters for constipation, liver complaint, malarial and rheumatic trouble and debility.

No one can count up the value of the labor which is both generous and conscientious. Even its money-value can never be calculated.

It is too bad that a poor wretch can be punished for stealing your pocket-handkerchief or gloves, and that no punishment can be inflicted on those who steal your time.

A Disputed Case.
Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not baldness caused either by disease or neglect can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others can not. Only a specialist of years of experience can tell this. Professor Birkholz, the world-renowned German specialist of the Masonic Temple, Chicago, where those who desire a good head of hair or beard can consult him in private, and free of charge. After a thorough examination, which costs you nothing, we will tell you whether or not you may procure that trait of personal adornment so necessary to your existence, and if we find that the follicles are not all dead, we will treat you and guarantee the results or ask no pay. Call on or address Professor Birkholz, 1011 Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill.
Hand this notice to any first class druggist and he will get the Remedy for you at once, if he has not got it in stock.

"She Was Not Afraid."

The vessel was awreck. The wind howled and lashed the waves into foam, whenever the latter were not busy rolling mountain high. "Darling, fear not." The youth drew his beloved yet closer, and waited for death. "I am not afraid," she answered, looking into his face with sublime trust. "What is there for me to fear? My hair curls naturally."—Detroit Tribune.

THE MICROSCOPE.

A careful microscopical examination of the urine, is a valuable aid in determining the nature of many chronic diseases, particularly those of the nervous system, blood, liver, kidneys, and bladder. These aids make it possible to treat such diseases successfully at a distance, without personal examination of the patient. Thus Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Bladder, Gravel, and other Diseases of the Urinary Organs are successfully treated; Nervous Debility, Exhaustion, Dropsy, Liver Disease, and many other Chronic Maladies are cured without seeing the patient. MISCELLANEOUS.

BUY your wife a parrot for Christmas and have some talking in the house. Splendid ones at Helmstreit's drugstore.

WHAT shall the Christmas gift be? If we had a son, which we haven't, we would say to him "stop smoking," (which he probably wouldn't) and buy with the money you would save, a home site on which to build a home or as speculation.

In case he would not listen to the advice we should buy one for him, making a present of the first payment and the contract and no doubt he would some way keep up the future easy monthly payments (even if the smoking habit had to go) and thus secure the property.

Quite an undertaking and investment to start this, say you? Not so much of one as it might at first blush seem, say we. Just as an encouragement for this plan of making Christmas presents, we will sell twenty full sized lots as good as there are in the city at ONE HUNDRED AND FIVE DOLLARS each, $5 cash down and one dollar per week for one hundred weeks and then the lot will be paid for in full. No interest, no anything, but exactly $105 for a full size lot by 132 foot lot and remember there cannot be bought a better lot at any price.

If the old folks don't avail themselves of this offer, you come in boys and girls and let us show you the lots, and we are very sure you will buy a lot and make yourself a Christmas present. We never, you never, no one else ever saw such a chance for either old or young people to get a home site. We assure you who may get these twenty lots that the lots adjoining yours shall never be sold at less than $150 to $200 each; and we feel confident we shall get $250 each for every lot adjoining these twenty lots that we now offer you at $105 each on easy (one dollar) weekly payments. It may seem strange to you that such a bargain is offered, and it is strange, and never again will such a chance to become a land owner occur. These twenty lots are for sale but ONE to a person, no man, woman, boy or girl can get but one of these twenty lots, and no lot adjoining either one of these can be bought to-day spot cash at less than $150 up. The deal is simply one of our "rattling" deals, and we shall never repeat the offer after these twenty lots are sold. Hadn't you better come in at once? Yours very truly, just the same as heretofore, GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARLINGTON.

One of Janesville's most distinguished citizens stood by the fountain last evening while the limpid veil of brilliantly illuminated spray surrounded Ziegler's exquisite statue of winter and remarked: "The youngsters of today can see more beautiful and attractive things at Ziegler's for nothing than we could at the expense of all our pocket money when we were boys." PAVING FIGURED UP BY CLERK BATES

PRICE PER FOOT VARIES ON DIFFERENT STREETS.

On South River Street It Is $63.36; on South Main $65.56; on East Milwaukee $53.47 and on West Milwaukee $39.83 the latter low figure because no curbing was used.

THE amount of tax that property owners will pay for paving in Janesville this season has been figured out by Clerk Bates. For each lot of twenty-two feet frontage on South River street, the tax will amount to $63.36; for the same frontage on South Main street, $65.56; on East Milwaukee street, $53.47; and on West Milwaukee street, $39.83. There was no curbing on West Milwaukee street, which is the reason for the low rate. The total cost of the East Milwaukee street improvement amounts to $3,349.74, and the total cost of the West Milwaukee street pavement $1,724.36. The heaviest cost falls on the West Milwaukee street property of the Peter Myers estate, their tax amounting to between eight and nine hundred dollars. City Clerk Bates will on Monday evening so report to the council, when it is expected the council will order a special assessment to pay for the same.

A HALF bushel of pop corn, valued at seventy-five cents, is the foundation of trouble for Fred O'Donnell and Thomas Mulcairns. The pop corn belonged to S. S. SHOT KENT'S HORSE ACROSS THE RIVER

SIX REVOLVER BULLETS MAKE A LONG FLIGHT.

Glancing From the Water They Fly a Thousand Yards and Dig Up Gravel Around the Feet of Some Frightened Section Men—Prompt Reparation Made.

Section men working near A. C. Kent's factory this morning heard six pistol bullets whistle around them. The sixth bullet hit one of Mr. Kent's black carriage horses and the horse may die.

William Knipp was trying a pistol near the Knipp brewery on the west bank of the river. He fired at a post, first taking care to see that his target was not in line with anybody on the other shore. The shots all struck the river just as he had expected, but they didn't stop. They glanced, and buzzed right along until they plowed up gravel around the feet of the section men.

This was fully a thousand yards away. The men could hear no sound of firing but they did their best to find cover.

The shot, which emptied the pistol and wounded the horse, had been fired before workmen in the Kent factory yelled a warning across the river. Mr. Knipp hastened to offer every reparation in his power. He went directly to Mr. Kent, got the wounded horse and took him to the brewery stables, agreeing to meet all expenses and to pay for the horse should it die.

"I had no idea the pistol would carry more than half way across the river," said he to a Gazette reporter. "It is a small one, and I supposed I was aiming so the bullets could not possibly do harm. They seem to have glanced to the right on striking the water."

DECKER NOTE CASE IS ENDED

Judge Bennett Directs a Verdict For W. H. Inman the Plaintiff

Judge Bennett this afternoon terminated the suit of W. H. Inman against C. S. and J. A. Decker by directing a verdict for the plaintiff for $395.18. The action was an appeal from the municipal court.

A note had been given it was claimed by C. S. Decker and endorsed by John A. and G. M. Decker but had been lost. The dispute was in regard to the endorsement by G. M. Decker. The denial being verified by the testimony, the court directed the verdict accordingly, and the jury were excused until Monday morning.

Quality Counts in Music

When one purchases a musical instrument of any kind they want the best, and they want it much more so, if it can be had for the same price as an inferior instrument. We have some guitars which have no equal in this town for highness of quality or lowness of price, and the famous Fischer piano is the acknowledged piano. No other piano can touch it. Christmas is almost here. H. F. Nott.

HISTORY OF THE NATIONAL GUARD

An Interesting and Useful Book Written by C. W. Colbron.

The Janesville Light Infantry are the subject of a sketch in "The Wisconsin National Guard," a book written by C. W. Colbron, and contains an introduction by Captain Charles King. It is neatly printed on good paper and is handsomely bound in blue cloth, embellished with gold. It is profusely illustrated, containing over 150 pictures, including portraits of the governor and his staff and prominent guardsmen, together with a lot of reproductions of photographs taken by Richard Lorenz, the artist, at the last encampment of the guard at Camp Douglas. The views give an excellent idea of life and work in camp. The book gives a great amount of information about the guard, including its history and an account of how the military reservation was obtained and put into its present shape. It also contains an interesting account of life in camp besides much general information concerning the guard organization.

A topic that is of interest just now in military circles is the probable changes soon to occur in the offices of the Second regiment and also of the Appleton Light Infantry. If Col. Patton of Oshkosh accepts the position of assistant adjutant-general, which has been offered him, it will leave the colonelcy of the Second vacant. Lieut. Col. Born of Sheboygan will be made colonel, and Capt. N. E. Morgan of the Appleton Light Infantry being the senior captain of the regiment, will be made major of the first battalion. This will leave the captaincy of the Light Infantry vacant, and it will be filled by the promotion of First Lieut. Joseph Schreiter. Maurice S. Peerenboom will be made first lieutenant and his place as second lieutenant will be filled by election.

HER EAR WAS A NEST FOR COCKROACHES

MRS. EMMA TAYLOR'S STRANGE
AFFLICTION.

Roaring in Her Ear As Well As Intense Pain Caused By the Lodgment of Three Chicago Bugs—Tobacco Smoke and a Hair Pin Relieved Her.

Mrs. Emma Taylor, who moved to this city from Chicago with her husband, L. A. Taylor, three weeks ago and who lives on Cedar street in the Fourth ward had three cockroaches taken from her ear this morning. Tobacco smoke brought one and a hair pin the others.

Mrs. Taylor felt a pain in her ear ten days ago but thought it due to a cold caught while moving her household goods from the depot to Spring Brook. The pain grew worse, however and there was a roaring in her ear that made sleep impossible. A liniment was applied but did no good and today her husband suggested that nicotine might give relief. He blew tobacco smoke into the ear for a moment and was startled to see a big cockroach crawl out of the ear. The insect seemed bewildered and moved slowly as if its imprisonment had not proven beneficial. No more came out, but Mrs. Taylor said she still felt pain, and the volunteer operator took a hair pin and used it as a probe. He brought out two small roaches but both were dead. Mrs. Taylor felt much relieved, and a drop of ephedrine oil put in the ear completed her cure.

"The house in which we lived in Chicago was an old one," said she to a neighbor a few hours later, and we never were able to keep the cockroaches from overrunning everything. I am glad we are away from them."

For Training Servant Girls.

A company of Benedictine nuns have opened at Bristol, Prince William county, Va., an institution where they propose to educate helpless and friendless girls for household and other domestic service. The girls are to have a fairly good common education and are then to be trained for whatever position they seem most competent to fill. It is a fact, understood by most householders of experience, that the maids trained in the convents and orphan asylums by the sisters are, as a rule, well trained. Respectful obedience is taught them, and beyond the one requirement of attention to their religious duties, they are not encouraged in any unreasonable complaints against their mistresses. The girls visit the convent constantly, and the sisters usually continue to exercise an excellent influence over them so long as they remain in their neighborhood.

A Model Servant.

A Hungarian contemporary reports the death of Ludwig Szabo, the steward of the manor of B.-K. Varalja, belonging to the family estate of Count Richy von Enyieck. Szabo, who had been for many years in the service of the house, bequeathed all his property—about $8,000 gulden—to the Zichy family. "For," said Szabo shortly before his death, "I was a poor, miserable fellow when I entered the service of the count. So, having here upon these states acquired the little fortune I possess, it is only meet it should be returned whence it came. The money will certainly be put to a good use here; but if it went elsewhere, I am not so certain of it. It might be squandered." The countess gave orders that her trusty servant should be buried with great pomp, and assigned to him a tomb in the mausoleum among the ancestors of the Richy family.

Gifts to Women's Colleges.

Women's colleges are beginning to get the plums of gifts whose like has long been the share of colleges for men. A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Indiana contributed her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a better record in that respect than it does. In literature it is rapidly acquiring an enviable place. In war and literature Solomon well known as a writer as "Sol," has won an honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M, 2d N. Y. Cavalry and of the 13th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows: "Several of us old veterans here are using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving splendid satisfaction. In fact, we have never used remedies that compare with them. Of the Pills we must say they are the best combination of the qualities required in a preparation of their nature we have ever known. We have none but words of praise for them. They are the outgrowth of a new principle in medicine, and come up the system wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies." —Solomon Yewell, Marion, Ind., Dec. 5, 1892. MILLINERY NOTES.

Rumor That the Old Fashioned Scoop Bonnet May Return.

A bonnet lately worn by a leader of fashion was of almost the regulation Quaker shape, with a wide brim coming down over the ears and an ample crown. It made a concession to custom by lifting at the back to show the hair, but it was decidedly a new departure, and, according to present ideas, not becoming. Perhaps the old fashioned scoop bonnet is again on its way to the front. If so, may some catastrophe interfere to prevent it from arriving, for never was there an article of headgear so unbecoming and so ugly.

Colored beaver is worn again this winter and is trimmed with watered ribbon. Flat shapes are selected by preference, the brim to be twisted and caught up, as individual fancy may dictate. Smooth colored felts are also shown in which the brim has a wide beaver edge. These wide hats have a great deal of trimming at the back and under the brim.

Among the late importations are buckles and fillets of tinted paste having an iridescent effect. Some of these fillets are made in the Greek key pattern and are used as the front of the bonnet, the choux, folds and ribbons forming the rest of it being arranged at the sides and back. Dahlias are the flower of the hour, and every hat or bonnet worthy of the name is adorned with this flower, which is so artificial looking by nature that it is a most natural looking production of art.

Long ostrich plumes, so long tabooed, are now seen again, and it is the turn of small tips to be relegated to obscurity. Curled coq feathers are also a fashionable trimming. Ostrich and coq boas are still worn, and, although the former are richer and more expensive, the latter are more becoming, as a rule.

A pretty idea for the hat of a decided brunette is a plaited bow of white crepe de chine placed under the brim and allowed to fall upon the hair. The soft white fabric resting on black hair is very effective. Hats for young girls are simple. The one shown in the cut is of ruby felt. A twist of black velvet, with a steel buckle in front, surrounds the crown, while the back is trimmed with ruby silk choux and loops, with two steel wings drooping over the hair.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

WINTER OUT OF DOOR GOWNS.

Cloth and Velvet Continue to Be the Popular Combination.

Fur is the leading trimming this winter. Walking and other out of door costumes are nearly all trimmed with bands of fur, both on skirt and bodice. Jet is combined with fur in rich toilets, especially those made of velvet.

The use of materials with fancy stripes in the old time boucle effect is observed in the new imported garments. The stripes run lengthwise and are from two to four inches wide. It is predicted that a great deal of woolly surfaced material will be used, and some indications point to shaggy effects like soft short hair or wool smooth and silky; others with wavy effect, such as is produced by fine angora wool.

The overskirt does not appear to increase in popularity. Some of the leading Paris houses have attempted to introduce new features in this arrangement, but with little success.

The employment of elaborate garniture in the way of cord passementerie is increasing. This garniture is made of heavy cord in rather open arabesque patterns. In some instances beads and jewels are introduced, in others it is made entirely of cord. Pattern sections of this garniture are prepared for the fronts of skirts, for panels, lapels and waist trimmings.

Petticoats for street wear are of the most elaborate description. They are of silk material, changeable moire or satin striped goods and are trimmed with lace and Louis Quinze ribbon knots. These delicate petticoats are often worn under the simplest and most sober of gowns.

The latest Parisian tailor made costume consists of a skirt and jacket, both trimmed with mohair braid. The jacket has small pockets and revers.

As has been already said, cloth is the fashionable material at present, and it is shown in many colors. The gown shown in the illustration is of this goods in a brick red tint, combined with velvet of the same shade. The plain cloth skirt is smooth in front and at the sides, but is plaited behind. On each side a band of jet passementerie extends upward from the bottom of the skirt, another band curving downward from the waist, but not meeting the lower one. The plain bodice is trimmed across the chest and shoulders by horizontal bands of velvet. Bretelles of passementerie also adorn the front of the bodice. A velvet belt surrounds the waist and forms a corset in front. The gigot sleeves are of velvet.

Whatever You Skip, Don't Skip This.

"You may know the flavor of a cheese without eating it entire." A taste of our daily news is the introduction. Omit some of it if you choose, but you'll be wiser if you read it all. Our talk this fall about Furniture has been strong, but never exaggerated. Could have made it more emphatic and still have been conservative. The furniture story, printed below, beats anything yet stated this year. It reveals a strange condition of the market. It proves our control of the market in your interest. It should command the thoughtful attention of every person.

Accept None of the Pretended Substitutes

FOR

Royal Baking Powder

BECAUSE inferior and cheaper made baking preparations are sold at wholesale at a price so much lower than ROYAL, some grocers are urging consumers to buy them in place of the ROYAL at the same retail price.

If you desire to try any of the pretended substitutes for ROYAL BAKING POWDER bear in mind that they are all made from cheaper and inferior ingredients, and are not so great in leavening strength nor of equal money value. Pay the price of the ROYAL BAKING POWDER for the ROYAL only.

It is still more important, however, that ROYAL BAKING POWDER is purer and more wholesome and makes better, finer, and more healthful food than any other baking powder or preparation.
